A TRIBUTE TO OUR FOUNDING FATHER, WALT STACK

DOUBLE DIPSEA

The 20th running of the Double Dipsea, hereafter "A Tribute to our Founding Father, Walt Stack," is now only a memory of healing blisters, poison oak; a patch of cloth (designed long ago by Walt's daughter); or imaginative and fun "Dipsea" wear, thanks to the talents of Rick Hardina. Our thoughts are directed to 1990, when the race will come of age -- 21.

At the first Double Dipsea there were 144 finishers, the winner 12-year old David Cortez in 2:09:45. Old blue-eyed Walt finished 69th at age 62 in 2:44:37 and old-timer Buck Swannack was final finisher, running 17 minutes slower than he did this year.

A bit of Double Dipsea trivia: youngest finisher ever is a 3-way tie between MaryEtta Boitano and Shannon Healy in 1970 and Chelsea Smith in '87. Oldest ever finisher was Ivor Welch in '85, but if Walt can keep from being knocked over and bruised as he was in the single Dipsea this year, we expect him to shatter Ivor's record in a few years. Largest number of finishers ever was 433 this year and most dedicated volunteer goes to John Soubier who has marked the trail for 19 of the 20 years. John was honored for his dedication with a plaque this year, so we hope we can continue to count on his help in the future.

A race this complex piles up its share of debts to those who contribute time and effort to make it work. Thanks to John Blankenship for paving the way with city and county officials, the Red Cross and park officials. Thanks to the park rangers for patrolling Windy Gap and for water and encouragement at Cardiac. Also, thanks to: Tom Eng, Gene Mallant, JoAnn Sidwell, Ben Eppersley, Dan McGill Ann Harrington, Don Newmark and Ritama, Susie Seaweed, Bruce Rueppel, Priscilla Black, Jenny Novoa, Rose Ukena, Bernice Carter, Pat and Mary Magee, Ann Yergin, Dottie Borba, Sasha Vitowski, Vicki, Susan, Darcy, Carol Hirsch, Letty Garbish, June Wydler, Jerry Fishman, John Lindley, Myra Green, Carolyn Clark, Joan Ullyot, Lese Rapozo, Ursula Bernhart, Fred Haber, and me, I'm Marsha Manit.
