WOMEN MARATHONERS

by Walter Stack

I'm doing a survey on women marathoners (over 16 years of age) with the aim in mind of helping women achieve equal opportunity in the long distance running field. If you know any women marathoners, see to it that they write me. Our club, the San Francisco Dolphin South End Runners, had more female marathoners than any non-female club in the United States. The following women marathoners are among them:

Natalie Cullimore, 100-50-32 miler and marathoner Elaine Pederson, 12 marathons Mary Lucille Boitano, 6 marathons Pamela Schmidt, 50 miles and Pikes Peak Skip Swannack, editor of our newsletter

lst Annual Frement "Atalanta", October 2, 1971 - 8 miles for Women

On Saturday, October 2nd, the mythological Goddess Atalenta reappeared in the city of Fremont in conjunction with the Marienda Grande Festival. Legend states that this lovely elusive lady vowed to wed only the man who was able to run more swiftly than she. As Atalenta was running, he rolled three golden apples in her path; greedily she stopped to pick them up -thus losing the race and gaining a husband. (By Eleine Pedersen)
