Oversight

Our list of finishers for the Avenue of the Giants half-marathon failed to include Anna Fong. Anna is a beginning jogger and this was her first race of that distance. She received a medal for finishing 1st in the over 40 category. Congrats!

BAKERSFIELD CLASSIC MINIMARATH

Gerry Haslam took 3rd in the May 17 13.1 mile mini-marathon in Bakersfield in a time of 1:19:23. He reports that the race was well organized, but too hot!

A DEADLINE'S A DEADLINE

You've got to be tough in the News letter publishing business. Set those deadlines and keep them. Take midyear mileage statistics for instance. If you didn't set a cut off date, they would be dribbling in for months. However, when you slipped up and lost the Club President's midyear mileage, you've got to make an exception.

WE GET POEMS

The following poem sent in by Virginia and Seymour Collins of Santa Maria needs no further introduction:

Help! I'm invisible, again I've been missed.
I never appear in your finisher's list.

Big races, little races, whatever my rank,
Where my name should occur, you leave a big blank.

I ran Avenue of the Giants, and just as I feared,
When the members were listed, my name disappeared.

It may not be your fault, I was going so fast
You may not have seen me as I flew past.

After 26 miles without even one halt, it's nice to be recognized,
I was there, just ask Walt.

May your Adidas all turn to wooden-soled shoes, if you don't
List my Pike's Peak time in the DSE news.

If you forget to mention all the pertinent facts,
May your ERG forever be spiked with Ex-Lax...

Hey, Virginia and Seymour, we gotcha this time.

Seriously though, Diane and Roger Major have done a super job this year, pulling those DSE names out of the sketchy and incomplete race results we often receive. We're sorry when we do miss a name now and then. Let us know - poetry, prose, cryptograms, whatever.

ORGANIZER NEEDED

Several DSE runners have already asked how one might get onto a team for the Christmas Relays (Santa Cruz to Half Moon Bay) coming up on December 21st.

We need a volunteer to line up teams of DSE runners who would be interested in entering the run. Teams would have three 10 mile and four 5 mile legs.

Anyone interested in setting up a team or teams for DSE'ers let your Editor know. Rumor has it that the Dolphin Dirty Doctors and the Tahoe Terrors are already in serious training for this event.

TOO MANY FOOTPRINTS IN THE SAND!

Help! DSE runner Steve Schonberger took part in our Biathalon on Sept. 7 and misplaced his red nylon Nike Waffle Trainers, size 8½ with his last name printed on the outside of the tongue. Anyone finding them please call Steve - 632-0324. Steve is tired of running barefoot on the beach and would like to get back to road running.

THE TURTLE GOES NATIONAL

Our own turtle, Walt Stack, was recently featured in the December 15th issue of Sports Illustrated, colored pictures and all. For those of you that didn't see the issue, rumor has it that Walt bought up several thousand extra copies. Way to be Walt!

A SPECIAL THANKS

To all of those "volunteer" stick passer outers, timers, ribbon passer outers and result recorder that so kindly "volunteer" each Sunday at 10 minutes to 10:00. Without your efforts, we'd have no record of our weekly accomplishments. Thanks
